Why am I here ?

- In the process of deciding whether to sponsor a FabLab in Basildon, Essex, UK.
- Need to understand the European Fablab viewpoint.
- Visit Maker Faire in Kerkrade
- Easy access from UK
- To offer my own experiences to help the community grow

What do I expect ?

- I hope to learn from others who have started and now run Fablabs
- Would like to form relationships with European researchers and Makers
- To get a better view of where others think the future lies.
